Dear Customer:

Pratt & Whitney Canada Corp. extends to you a most cordial welcome to the global family of P&WC engine customers. We are investing heavily in our portal in order to provide you with new levels of speed and simplicity when dealing with Pratt & Whitney Canada. One important initiative is the transition of our Technical Publications to a totally online environment.

To each new aircraft operator/owner -EXCLUDING used aircraft- we provide free online Maintenance Collection (English version) revision service for a period of 2 years from date of aircraft delivery consisting of the following:

- Engine Maintenance Manual (available online)
- Engine Illustrated Parts Catalog (available online)
- Engine Service Bulletins, Spare Parts Bulletins and Service Information Letters (available online)
- Engine Diagnostic Tool – Spotlight (available online only for PW100, PW200 and PW300 models)
- Ground Base Software (available online, only for selected models)
- Fast System Collection (available online, only for selected models)

The free of charge publications are offered to aircraft operators/owners and not applicable for maintenance organizations. You must register to MyP&WC Power portal to access your Maintenance Collection. Please register at <https://customer.pwc.ca> to obtain your user name and password.

Important – Please complete and return this form along with the fully signed
